GIRL SCOUT NOTES.

Girl Scouts feel that the success of the supper-dance at Rauscher's last week was largely due to the efforts of Mrs. William B. Bayles, chairman of the committee of arrangements. Mrs. Bayles, formerly was captain of Troop 20 and it was through her energetic work for the scout movement that this entertainment was given the girls by Mr. Lansburgh.

There will be a captains' meeting at the residence of Mrs. G. S. Rafter on next Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Madame Marie Von Unschuld will give the tests to the scouts seeking proficiency awards in music.

After a short business meeting, Troop 1 had a lesson from Miss Fox of the Instructive Visiting Nurses, on "Bathing a Patient." A small colored child acted as the patient. The girls of the troop made the bed in hospital fashion, as they had learned at their last lesson, and Miss Fox bathed the patient without taking her out or bed. The lesson at the next meeting, to be held at the Home of the Visiting Nurses, 2506 K street northwest, will be on bandaging.

At the last meeting of Troop 3, at the residence of their captain, the girls were instructed in the whistle calls and also what to do in case of fire. Later they all marched to the residence of Miss Pauline Graff, one of their number, where a party was given in her honor.

Here Dr. Bowker spoke to them on the necessity of first aid knowledge. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dr. and Mrs. Bowker, Mr. T. Graff, Charles Graff, Kenneth O'Brien, Lila Smithson, Max Walter, Gola Whelan, Ethel Mintie, Esther Hearn, Franklin Shiner, Mrs. Palm, Miss Margaret Tew, Lillian Mintie, Alice Quast, Annie Costello, Virginia Frye, Mary Hartigan, Elizabeth Tew, Jean Stallmount and Miss Alma Barker.

A group of our girls from Troop 6 gave a demonstration on Wednesday of first aid and semaphoring for the Webster Parent-Teacher Association. Scout Melba Jones explained how she obtained her proficiency badges. On Friday evening the girls united with the Boys' Progressing Club in a celebration of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays at the M. E. church of Potomac. Ruth Haynes, Katherine McKittick and Rita Eastburn rendered vocal and instrumental numbers. Corp. Tanner spoke on Lincoln and Rev. G. Ellis Williams on Washington. The program concluded with a medley of national airs arranged by the captain and the accompanist, Mrs. Gregor Weetzel, a spotlight being thrown on the flag as the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung.

Troop 7 has grown to a membership of twenty-seven in two months. The latest new members are Madeline Columbus, Margaret McKinley, Margaret Wells, Catherine Lantel, Mary Bixler, Margaret Wickham, Gertrude and Sarah Vela Delaney, Mildred Von Elm, Catherine Brown, Evelyn Ball and Margaret Kubel.

The scouts of Troop 12 held their regular meeting on Saturday at their Little's home. Two new members were admitted. After singing "America" signal drill with the semaphore flags was exhibited. Since the new year, the following members have been admitted: Alice Ranch, Josephine Godbold, Mary McDermott, Rachel Pierce, Louise Chamberlin, Myrtle Christian and Sarah Myers. The officers are Edna Rose, patrol leader; Catherine Davis; corporal, Catherine Hawley; secretary and treasurer; Violeta Moore, scribe.

Troop 10, the baby troop in point of age of the girls, is completing its tenderfoot examinations; each scout who has passed it so far has averaged 80 per cent or over, penmanship and spelling also being considered. At the rally all of the troops were entertained at luncheon at their captain's home, the girls preparing and serving the meal. The troop contributed to the work of the Red Cross. Arrangements have been made to teach the girls signalling. Flashlights later will be used in night work when they go camping this summer.

Troop 19 held its weekly meeting Thursday at Waucho Church. Thirty-two answered roll call. The following girls were presented with their second-class badges by Mrs. Juliette Gordon Low, national president, at the rally: Marian Saunders, Eloise Thomas, Maud Bayles, Dorothy Pickens and Mildred Mooney. Harriet Enoch and Marian Smith passed their tenderfoot examination. Eloise Thomas, who each day in the year has taken a little lame girl to and from school, was highly complimented for this by Mrs. Low. The girls are enthusiastic over their new troop banner presented to them by Mrs. Low.

The Daffodil Troop 22 held its weekly meeting at the home of its lieutenant, Mrs. Forth. The following lines, by Scout Theima Forth, were inspired by the rally:

G—Is the GAME we all must play;
Stick to the right; don't mind what others say.

I—Is for IDEAL we all hold dear;
Something to work for, some career.

R—It's sometimes hard to do what's RIGHT;
But a Girl Scout tries with all her might.

L—Is for LOYAL to troop and to friend;
A Girl Scout is loyal unto the end.

S—Is for STRONG, to run and to play;
In the sunshine we should spend part of each day.

C—Is for CHEERFUL, a laugh and a song.
Will help brighten the whole day long.

O—Is for OBEEDIENT, for come what may
A Girl Scout's duty is to obey.

U—Is for YOU, it's YOU must work.
And from your small duties never slack.

T—Is for THRIFTY, we save each spare dime
And lay it away for some future time.

Troop 8, Takoma Park, held its regular meeting Friday, February 4, with a good number of girls present. The captain reviewed the scout work. The troop is gathering up bandages to send to the wounded in Europe.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES

And Sore Eruptions. Large, Hard and Red. Caused Itching and Burning. After Two Weeks

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"For several years I was troubled with pimples and sore eruptions on my face. The pimples were large, rather hard and red, and after a while festered and came to a head. Then I would open them but they would stay red and fester up again and so on. They were scattered all over my face and caused a great deal of itching and burning and my face was greatly disfigured."

"After using all the remedies that I could get my hands on, I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them according to directions and after about two weeks the pimples were gone and I was healed." (Signed) Vincent Harbeck, Weaverville, N. Carolina, August 1, 1915.
